

Does reading newspapers support learning?

The results indicated that pupils who are active newspaper readers were also the best ones when it comes to reading skills, mathematics, natural sciences and problem solving. A result the researchers found especially surprising was that reading newspapers appears to have a very positive influence on girls' mathematical skills.

Pirjo Linnakylä and Antero Malin, The Institute for Educational Research, Jyväskylä University and Finnish Newspapers Association
www.sanomalehdet.fi